

LAW FOR THE PROTECTION OF PROSTITUTES / SEX-WORKERS

Notification for the implementation

The law for the protection of prostitutes has been put into force July 1st 2017.

According to this law an official obligation of registration is introduced. The registration procedure implies the participation in a briefing and a consultation and particularly a counseling on health issues. Additionally the requirement of a licence for running a sex-worker business has become compulsory.

The setting and implementation for the procedure for the licence /work-permit and of the health counseling and the registration are currently being prepared

To avoid any disadvantages for the affected they should report to the "Stadtamt" straight away for a temporary recognition at the following address :

Stadtamt Bremen

Referat für Gewerbeangelegenheiten

Stresemannstraße 48

28078 Bremen

Telefon: 0421-361-2871

If you have been a prostitute in Bremen already before July 1st 2017 there is a valid transitional period:

the official registration has to be completed only till Dec 31st2017.
